

Vacation homeownership simplified

Leave your worries behind with our proven track record.

Detailed collaboration

We make ourselves personally available and work closely with each of our clients.

Long-established relationships

We have long-established relationships with trusted local vendors, equating to timely and cost-effective repairs for your home.

Tailored to your needs

We create a personalized strategy specifically tailored to each homeowner's needs.

Quality control standards

We offer a very high standard of cleanliness and housekeeping quality control so you can rest assured – you're in good hands.

Exceptional service, local knowledge, boutique experience.

A boutique approach

We take pride in providing top-tier service through a boutique approach specifically focusing on Northstar and Old Greenwood. With an emphasis on the high-end vacation rental market, we have an in-depth knowledge of luxury residences in North Lake Tahoe and utilize the proper methods to maintain your mountain home to the highest standard.

Exceptional service

Our team is determined to create a long-standing and trusted relationship with each and every one of our valued homeowners. We differ from our competitors in that we provide a quality and comprehensive vacation rental management experience for our owners. From housekeeping to maintenance to guest communication, we handle every detail of vacation homeownership from beginning to end.

Your home is a unique investment. We're here to help you make the most of it.

An experienced, personalized,
and professional local team.
